Guidelines for Groups

Your participation and attendance in groups hosted by The Way Out of Darkness.LIVE, indicates your agreement with the following:

- ❖ You are encouraged to form relationships with others in your group. To do so, you may share your information privately through the Zoom chat feature. Use caution in your pursuit of relationships as people are at different stages in their journeys. When in doubt take it slow and be careful what you share. It is okay to set boundaries and to tell someone no.
- ❖ Please allow others their journeys. It is okay to disagree. Unity is the goal, not conformity.
- ❖ What is shared in the group, stays in the group. Breaches of confidentiality may result in removal.
- ❖ Love covers a multitude of sins. Do NOT “uncover” the other women (or anyone else) publicly in the Zoom meetups, in the “Conversations” forum, or in any other way.
- ❖ Men are NOT allowed to listen in or to appear on screen in Ladies groups. Ladies are NOT allowed to listen in or to appear on screen in Mens groups.
- ❖ Personal offenses are to be handled using the process described by Master Yeshua (Jesus) in Matthew 18.
- ❖ The Facilitator is the leader of each group. Attempts by participants to dominate, manipulate, or to control the group conversation or direction of the meeting will simply not be allowed. If the behavior persists, removal from the group session may occur with or without warning. This is to preserve the safety and integrity of the group as a whole.
- ❖ No Solicitation. Groups and their members may not be utilized for self-gain. Requests for financial or material assistance must be directed to the group Facilitator privately.
